

CENTRO STUDI UMANISTICI 'M.Tullio Cicerone' CITTA' DI ARPINO

XXXIX Certamen Ciceronianum Arpinas

Arpino 9 - 10 - 11 - 12 May 2019

For the kind attention of the President of Italian Republic Under the auspices of:
Ministry of Education, University and Research Ministry of Foreign Affairs

GUIDELINES

Art. 1 - The Centro Studi Umanistici "M. Tullio Cicerone" of Arpino index the XXXIX CERTAMEN CICERONIANUM ARPINAS, a Latin competition.

Participation is reserved to students of the last year of Italian classical and scientific high schools, promoted to the last year by a grade not less than 8/10 in Latin, to pupils of the corresponding foreign schools in which Latin is studied and to students coming from Non-European countries. No more than three (3) students may take part, accompanied by no more than two (2) accompanying teachers for each school. If the days of CERTAMEN coincide with the exams in foreign schools, the participation of students from the penultimate year is allowed.

Art. 2 - The proof will deal with the Latin version of a piece by Cicero. Moreover, with a short comment, the competitor will have to clarify his interpretation of the steps that will seem to him worthy of being underlined both for the language and for the content. Either for the version or for the comment, the candidate will use his own mother tongue.

Art. 3 - The CERTAMEN will take place on the premises of the "Istituto di Istruzione Tulliano" of Arpino on 10th May 2019, at 8:30. The test will be 5 hours long and the use of the dictionary will be allowed. The modalities of the test will be those of public competitions.

Art. 4 - The participants must hand over the application form to the Headmaster of their school. If there are more than three students, the Executives will make the selection in the most appropriate way. The applications, approved by the Headmaster, must be sent by registered mail, by the School, within 10th April 2019 to the President of the Centro Studi Umanistici 'M. Tullio Cicerone' - Corso Tulliano - 03033 ARPINO (Frosinone) ITALY. Competitors from non-European countries may submit applications for participation also through their respective Embassies or Consulates, by the date indicated above. The enrolled School, in order to partially cover the expenses, will have to pay a fee equal to € 220.00 (two hundred and twenty / 00 €) for each student and each accompanying teacher, net of bank charges, in favor of the 'M. Tullio Cicerone' of Arpino by Bank Wire Transfer to the Banca Popolare del Cassinate Agency of Arpino, for Italian schools IBAN Code: IT 54 N 053727433000010547693, for foreign schools IBAN Code: IT 54 N 053727433000010547693 + BIC Code POCAIT3c.

The receipt of the payment must be attached to the application form. Applications for participation, with attached receipt of payment, can be sent by fax to +39 0776 848010, or via e-mail to organizzazione@certamenciceronianum.it

Art. 5 – Participants are required to bring a valid Identity Document to the test site.

Art. 6 - The panel of judges, appointed by the President of the Centro Studi Umanistici, will be composed by university professors, headmasters and teachers of Classical Languages, even at rest. In no way can professors who teach in institutions attended by students participating in the Certamen be part of the commission. The rules of public competitions also apply to the Commission.

Art. 7 - The panel of judges will award, at its sole discretion, the prizes offered; can also attribute "honorable mentions".

PROGRAMME

THURSDAY, 9 MAY 2019 18.00: Participants' meeting and registration.	SATURDAY, 11 MAY 2019 Guided tours to cultural places.
FRIDAY, 10 MAY 2019 8.30: CERTAMEN test For the accompanying teachers: a day of classical culture XI edition - Ciceronian Symposium	SUNDAY, 12 MAY 2019 10.00 Town Hall Square: Awards Ceremony Post cancellation: 8.30 – 13.00

Arpino, 03/10/2018

Il Presidente Renato Rea

